

Event: Second meeting of the Wales low-carbon initiatives Learning Exchange network

Theme: Scaling up: from local initiatives to regional and national transformation

Date: September 30th 2010

Venue: Lammas EcoVillage, Tir y Gafel, Glandwr, Pembrokeshire, SA34 0YD (AM)
The Old School, Hermon, Glogue, Pembs, SA36 0DT. (PM)

Chairs: Steve Harris, Science Shops Wales, University of Glamorgan (SRH)
Usha Ladwa-Thomas, Climate Change and Water Division, WAG (UL-T)

Outline Agenda:

- 09.30 - Arrival at Lammas
- 10.00
- 10.00 Welcome and outline of the day: addressing the challenges of 'scaling up' sustainability initiatives in Wales – SRH & UL-T
- 10.30 Interactive tour of Lammas EcoVillage led by Paul Wimbush, Lammas Low-Impact Living Initiatives Ltd.
- 12.30 Travel to The Old School, Hermon
- 13.00 – Lunch
- 13.30
- 13.30 Input: Ideas for scaling-up.
Chris Blake, Green Valleys – NESTA awardees – energy and finance
Paul Wimbush, Lammas – DECC LCCC awardees – food and land use
- 14.00 Plenary Discussion – Scaling up: Lessons learned from our own initiatives and projects. What do we see as the main opportunities and obstacles? What are the key roles for the state, civil society and business sectors?
- 15.00 Arrival of Jane Davidson AM, Welsh Assembly Government Minister for the Environment, Sustainability and Housing.
- 15.00 – Discussion with the Minister based on the day's proceedings.
- 16.45
- 16.45 – Summary and Thanks - SRH & UL-T
- 17.00